Welcome

Dear Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to the 6th TOP Andro Derma Scientific Day and Workshops, organized in collaboration with the Dermatology, Venereology, and Andrology Department, Faculty of Medicine, Aswan University, on Friday, April 3, 2026, at the Pyramisa Island Hotel, Aswan City.

This scientific gathering is dedicated to advancing knowledge and clinical practice in dermatology and andrology. By combining expertise across disciplines, we aim to provide practical insights, foster interactive learning, and strengthen collaboration among specialists.

We are confident that meeting's sessions will enrich our understanding, inspire innovation, and contribute to improved patient care.
Your active participation is the key to making this day a success.

Warm regards,

TOP Andro Derma Management Team
