Welcome Message:

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to the

9th Scientific Conference

of Clinical Pathology Department

Faculty of Medicine Menoufia University

"The Intersection Between Laboratory Medicine and Patient Care"

This conference brings together distinguished professionals, researchers, and healthcare practitioners to explore the vital role of laboratory medicine in enhancing diagnostic accuracy, supporting clinical decision-making, and improving patient outcomes. Through insightful discussions and knowledge exchange, we aim to highlight recent advances, innovative practices, and the essential collaboration between laboratory services and clinical care.

We hope this conference serves as a valuable platform for learning, networking, and advancing excellence in patient-centered healthcare.

We wish you a successful and enriching conference experience.

Thank you for joining us, and welcome

Conference President
